Documentary Film Series 2017

CONVERSE FREE LIBRARY & LYME SCHOOL present six recent documentary films that reflect our shared mission to provide a platform for exploring issues related to education, health, and social cohesion. Through this series, we hope to bring families together to discuss ideas related to building a healthy community, to initiate dialogue about difficult issues pertaining to contemporary youth and families, and to illustrate the many ways the Converse Free Library and the Lyme School can provide information, support, and resources to Lyme's children and their families. All films are free.
